

Gearing up for CU Leadership

e:con is an all-Ireland training conference designed to inspire and equip you to grow as a Christian and lead your CU well.

What do I get?

Deep refreshment from Acts on “the glorious gospel” – the message, means, ministry & messenger – brought to us by internationally renowned speaker Rebecca Pippert. Becky is the author of the modern classic on evangelism, Out of the Salt Shaker. She has many years experience in student ministry & is currently living in Ireland. Widely regarded as one of the liveliest and most effective communicators of the gospel today, we are privileged to have Becky speak to us at e:con, warming our hearts afresh at the wonder of the gospel of grace.

Other reasons for going to e:con? Practical training streams specifically for: new CU leaders, small group leaders, leaders of small CUs & outgoing leaders. Top tips & fresh ideas for campus evangelism. Optional seminars. Rousing times of corporate praise & worship. Prayer for each other & world mission. Making new friends & sharing ideas with CU leaders from all over Ireland. Quality food - & no washing up! A banquet (formal attire optional). A cafe full of baking treats. A well stocked book table.

Who's it for?

- Committee members
- Small group leaders
- Outgoing CU leaders
- Active CU members

How much will it cost?

£45/€50 non-residential (3 lunches, 2 dinners, & comprehensive training manuals & handouts)

£75/€85 residential (all the above plus 3 nights stay & 3 breakfasts)

Book before 25 Mar & get an early bird discount of £5/€5!

Don't let finances stop you from coming - talk to your CU staffworker to investigate SU subsidy or church sponsorship.
